RESIDENTIAL SALES

7 Jockey Lane, Bromham, SN15 2EZ

Guide Price £450,000

An exceptional, high-specification, detached village home, featuring a stunning kitchen / dining room, three large double bedrooms, an en-suite shower room, a downstairs toilet, a separate utility room, a fair-size rear garden, off-street parking, and a car port featuring a secure storage space. Built by renowned local developers Qdos Homes circa 6 years ago. This exclusive courtyard development is tucked away within the sought after village of Bromham, walking distance to a range of amenities and the beautiful Wiltshire countryside!

One of four impressive houses built to a high standard, this property features gas-fired heating (underfloor heating to the ground floor and first floor bathrooms). An incredible kitchen / breakfast and dining room occupies the whole width of the property to the rear with French doors leading out to the rear garden, including a range of integrated Neff appliances & quartz worktops. Double doors from the dining area lead to a lovely bay-fronted sitting room. In addition there is a large utility room with a door leading outside, and a generous sized cloakroom.
