The property boasts two well-sized bedrooms. Bedroom one is a spacious double room with fitted wardrobes, offering ample storage. Bedroom two, while a single, still offers plenty of space, or can be used as a home office.

The bungalow has a recently refurbished bathroom, fitted with a heated towel rail, a corner shower cubicle, and a vanity sink/toilet unit. The high-gloss kitchen has also been recently refurbished in 2016 and comes complete with an integrated fridge freezer, an electric hob/oven/extractor, and a dishwasher. There is also a boiler cupboard, providing more storage options.

There is one spacious reception room in the property, featuring a large window that bathes the room in natural light and offers a great open view. It has coving, a wall-mounted heater, space for dining furniture, and a built-in storage cupboard.

The property has gone through several updates, including new windows installed in 2017, a new porch added in 2022, new radiators in 2016, and has a full gas central heating system.

Externally, the rear garden has privacy, not overlooked and is tiered with decking, AstroTurf, and a grassed area. There's also a metal storage shed and 2 PVC storage boxes. The front garden is partially grassed with gravel and paved areas for easy maintenance. There is on street parking available directly at the front of the property.

In the immediate area there is access by road or footpath to local amenities, including a Morrisons supermarket, public transport links, including Bramley train station, walking routes, and cycling routes are all within the vicinity. This property is in a quiet location, offering a great open view that adds to its charm.
