HOWKINS &
HARRISON

4 Bedroom House located in Daventry

Howkins & Harrison are delighted to offer for let this stunning four-bedroom 18th Century mid terrace property offering good size accommodation alongside a wealth of period features. The property boasts a 150-foot garden in a central position in the village of Everdon.

The property having been beautifully renovated offers a generous hallway with ample storage, a refitted kitchen/ dining room with appliances and bi-fold doors leading to the garden, a utility room, cloakroom and a cosy sitting room with stove and beautiful exposed stone walls. Upstairs the landing provides a perfect working space which leads to the master bedroom and refitted ensuite shower room, three further double bedrooms and a modern bathroom with bath and separate shower cubicle. Features include a feature fireplace, quarry tiled floors, exposed beams and stone walls. The generous garden is mainly laid to lawn with a shed and a patio area. Viewing is highly recommended. Offered unfurnished, available 9th August. EPC Rating C, Council Tax Band C. Pets Considered.

Everdon is a popular and picturesque village set in south Northamptonshire with easy access to the market town of Daventry, the County town of Northampton and Banbury. Milton Keynes is accessed via the A5 and provides an excellent fast main line train service to London Euston taking approximately thirty-five minutes. There are several beauty spots in the area including Everdon Stubbs, Mantles Heath and Badby Woods. The village has a public house, parish church and active field centre. There are buses to the local primary school which is located in the next village of Badby and there is a wide range of independent schools in the area. Daventry and Towcester provide local shopping facilities.
