EVE Property are delighted to present to the open sales market a spacious one bedroom with box room second floor apartment in Hawthorn Street, Springburn. Centrally located for all nearby amenities and transport links and in good condition throughout, this rare to market property will be of great interest to buy to let investors and to those looking to settle in the area and, as such, early viewing is strongly encouraged!

Property Description

Flat 2/3 is perfectly placed for all local amenities and transport links. Entry is via a controlled door entry system to the communal close shared with neighbouring properties.

Internally the property comprises hallway neutral decor and carpet flooring. Spacious lounge with views of the rear garden and kitchen off. Stylish fitted kitchen with gloss wall and floor units and equipped with electric oven, gas hob, fridge freezer and washing machine. The bright double bedroom has a large bay window flooding the room with natural light. The bathroom completes the internal accommodation - a white bathroom suite and electric shower over bath.

Further enhancements are double glazing and electric heating. This property is offered with furniture included.

Properties in this area seldom come to the market and will appeal to first time buyers or investors as a buy-to-let. Call our friendly sales team today to schedule your viewing appointment to avoid missing your opportunity!

The area is well served by public transport with regular bus services on Hawthorn Street going to and from the city centre. Ashfield Station is within walking distance with Supermarkets close by.
