• Ripon 6 miles • Pateley Bridge 11 miles • Northallerton 19 miles • Harrogate 15 miles • Leeds 32 miles

Location

The property is centrally located off Middle Street in the rural east Yorkshire village of Kilham. The village provides limited services however the larger town of Driffeld is just 4.5 miles to the south west providing an excellent range of services and amenities.

Description

This substantial brick built Methodist Church with stone features and adornments is accessed via steps from Middle Street and entered via a pair of matching arched doorways into separate entrance vestibules which both open into the Main Hall.

The Main Hall (14.23m max x 9.72m max) has a recess for the organ, feature coloured glass windows and an impressive exposed pitch pine roof structure . Adjacent to the Main Hall is a further reception area with external door. The reception area gives access to a separate cloakroom with w.c and wash hand basin, and a useful kitchen (4.43m x 5.68m) with base and wall units, laminate work surface, stainless stell sink and drainer and tiled splash back.

We have estimated the approximate gross internal floor area of the building to be 171sqm

Outside, there is a separate boiler room (4.99m x 1.97m) housing the Vaillant gas combination boiler. There are paths extending to each side of the church.

There is no private vehicle parking with the property.

Restriction on Use

Being previously used as a place of worship, the property has been identified by East Riding Council as an existing ‘Community Facility and Social Space’ and is protected as such under the adopted local plan.

Any proposed new use for the property must first be approved by the Local Authority in writing to ensure it is compliant with the community use policy.

Overage

The property is sold subject to an overage clause in relation to future residential and commercial change of use that will entitle the vendors and their successors in title to 50% of any uplift generated by the grant of planning permission for change of use. The term of the overage clause will be for a period of 30 years from the date of completion of the sale.
