Overview

Situated approximately ¾ mile to the west of the city centre, in the popular Whitecross area of the city, the property is well situated for access to local amenities including convenience stores and takeaways just a few minutes walk away. The shop and pharmacy are also just a few minutes walk away on Westfaling Street, additional shops, butchers, pubs, schools all within five minutes drive and the city centre five/ten minutes drive.

Hereford itself offers a wide range of services and amenities including leisure facilities, pubs and restaurants, the Old Market shopping, restaurant and cinema complex, the recently opened nMite University, Hereford Cathedral School and The Courtyard Theatre. High Town the original heart of Hereford city has a wide range of shops and Church St with its boutique shops and cafes leads to the cathedral. Lovely walks are available around the Cathedral, Castle Green, Bishops Meadows and King George IV playing fields situated alongside the beautiful River Wye.

There are regular bus services into the city centre (several bus stops within a few minutes walk of the property) where there is a mainline railway station with hourly services to Birmingham, Newport and Shrewsbury.

Geographically Hereford is situated approximately 16 miles (26 km) east of the border with Wales, 24 miles (39 km) southwest of Worcester, and 23 miles (37 km) northwest of Gloucester. Dual carriageway and motorway links are available at Worcester, Ledbury and Ross on Wye leading to the wider motorway network.

The property itself occupies a tucked away yet very convenient location within Whitecross having large lawned gardens and gravelled driveway and parking, in turn leading to a single garage. Its sits well back in its plot offering additional privacy.

The property believed to date from circa 1890 has been upgraded and improved by the current vendor. In addition to the four character reception rooms situated within the main house, is a superb rear extension providing a spacious open plan kitchen/dining/family room with double doors leading onto the patio terrace.

There are also double doors from the sitting room to the patio creating a lovely entertaining area. To the first floor are four good sized bedrooms.

To the lower ground floor level with its own independent access, is a useful self contained annexe with one bedroom, shower room and open plan kitchen/living area. This offers a useful potential income opportunity, AirBnB/letting unit, teenager suite or home office.
