Charles Street

, Brighton, BN2 1TG

Asking price £760,000

A Beautiful Five Bedroom End of Terrace House, that's right in the Heart of Kemp Town and close to the Beach.

The property comprises: hall, double reception room, kitchen leading on to dining room, five bedrooms, three luxury shower rooms and private patio garden.

The property is presently arranged for short term lets and is immaculately presented throughout with much style and character.

Located in the ever-popular Charles Street with Kemp Town Seafront and the Beach at one end of the street and the vibrant St James Street with its excellent shopping, restaurants, and coffee bars at the other.

Central Brighton shopping including the famous Lanes and Brighton's wonderful theatres are a short walk away and the exclusive Soho House is just around the corner.

There is a good bus service locally and Brighton Mainline station is within walking distance with its quick connections to both London and Gatwick.

This is a great property that will be of interest to families and investors and is that rarest of things a chain free five-bedroom house.
