EAST BERGHOLT

The village has a good range of local facilities, including a newly opened large Co-op with a Post Office, chemist, GP surgery, and medical centre. It also benefits from parish and congregational churches, as well as many local associations.

Educational facilities are excellent, ranging from pre-school and primary school to high school, with access to sixth-form colleges in Colchester and Ipswich. Several private schools are also located in nearby villages, all with strong reputations.

East Bergholt offers ideal transport links, being only a few minutes' drive from the A12, which connects to the M25 towards London and the A14 to the North. Stansted Airport is easily accessible, approximately one hour by car. Direct National Express buses operate from both Ipswich and Colchester. Manningtree railway station is nearby, with a journey time of around one hour to London Liverpool Street.

There is a wide range of pubs, restaurants, and cafés offering a variety of food and drink. The Red Lion pub, now run by the Chestnut Group, serves everything from breakfast to pizzas and pub classics. Across the road, Gaia, a Latin-influenced café, offers exciting dishes with diverse flavours, including outdoor seating in a charming courtyard. Further up the road are The Hare & Hounds and The Carriers Arms, two traditional, cosy pubs with excellent food and a fine selection of ales.
