The accommodation offers good sized rooms and has been upgraded by the current owner to provide a comfortable home. The lounge/diner offers a triple aspect and leads out to a comfortable conservatory overlooking the rear garden. The smart kitchen also leads into the conservatory and in addition, there are two good sized double bedrooms, one with a well appointed en suite shower room and in addition, a modern bathroom. There are double glazed windows throughout and modern individual electric heaters providing the heating. Outside, there are well maintained gardens to the front and rear together with ample off road parking for three cars and a garage.

LOCATION

The village of Whitwell is a picturesque village located to the south of the Island and within a few minutes drive of the coastal resort town of Ventnor. The property is tucked away in the corner of a cul-de-sac off Bannock Road and easily accessible to the village centre with its church, garage/filling station and popular public house, The White Horse Inn. There are further facilities located in the neighbouring village of Niton including Norris Family Grocers and a wider range of shops and amenities in both Ventnor and Newport, the Island's commercial centre. Surrounding the village are a network of footpaths and bridleways providing access to miles of downland and country walks affording some breathtaking scenery.
