Blaenant Talley, Llandeilo, Carmarthenshire, SA19 7YW

Asking Price £2,750,000

An impressive and extensive approx 346 acre farm in a private valley setting with a substantial 4 bed farmhouse, useful range of outbuildings and useful grazing lands surrounding the homestead.

A renowned former sheep farm this property also has potential for sporting and amenity purposes taking into account its location and topography.

Located off the Village of Talley renowned for its Abbey in North Carmarthenshire, convenient to the Towy valley towns of Llandeilo and Llandovery.

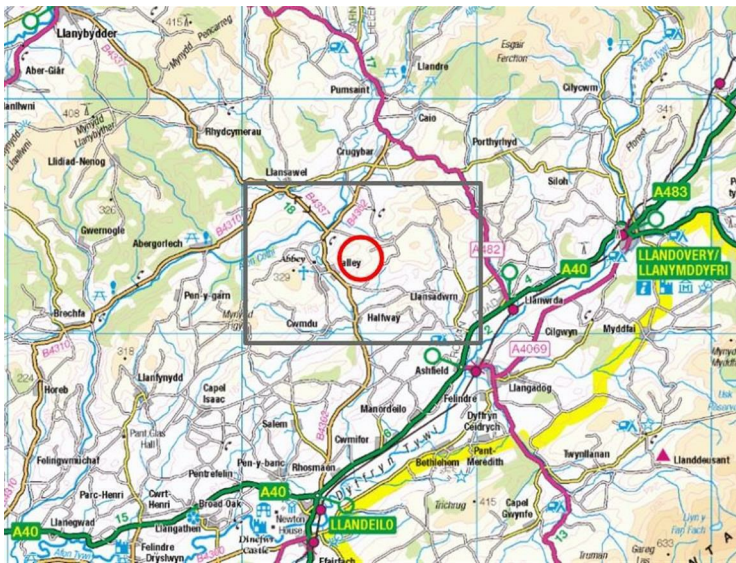

Description

Rarely do we see such a large holding being presented for sale in one ring fence, being a renowned sheep farm having a good network of internal tracks with a mix of level lands for harvesting, further grazing lands, various ponds and woodlands. The Farm in our opinion has significant potential for amenity and sporting purposes with the feature ponds and has been the home to a successful pheasant shoot historically.

The homestead is privately set in the centre of the farm along a hard based track initially shared and then private, leading to the homestead.

Location

The farm is privately located in its own valley setting with commanding southernly views towards the village.

Talley is a popular village with well regarded primary school and some 6.5 miles North of the destination town of Llandeilo.

The Farm is also convenient to Llangadog and Llandovery.

Farmhouse

The Farmhouse is a substantial detached farmhouse of traditional construction located at the top of the homestead overlooking the buildings and with a lovely southernly aspect with panoramic views down the valley.

The farmhouse has double glazed windows with oil fired central heating and offers well proportioned rooms.
