The property: an exceptional example of a characterful three bedroom, two storey maisonette positioned on St. Leonards seafront with uninterrupted sea views. The accommodation spans the first and second floor of this period building and is presented to an immaculate standard throughout, comprising an impressive living space with a feature fireplace and three large windows which frame a southerly aspect and sea views. The living room is open to the bespoke fitted kitchen which houses integrated appliances with open shelving. Stairs rise to the upper floor where there are three well proportioned double bedrooms together with a luxury bathroom where there is a bath with a shower over. Available either furnished or unfurnished from mid May.

The location: occupying an unrivalled location on the seafront, adjacent to St. Leonards beach. It is positioned within walking distance to nearby shops and restaurants at Marine Court, Grand Parade and central St. Leonards. St. Leonards offers a collection of independent stores, antique shops, galleries cafes and restaurants along with a mainline railway station with connections to London.
