The property: an impressive three bedroom loft style maisonette forming a portion of a converted Church hall. The accommodation has undergone extensive restoration and is presented to an exceptional standard throughout benefitting from luxury fixtures and fittings. You enter on the ground floor which is arranged as an impressive open plan space for living, dining and with a stylish kitchen. There are bi-folding doors opening to a second reception area, a large utility room, downstairs cloakroom and access out to the decked rear garden which provides an idyllic spot to dine outdoors. The upper floor enjoys a large galleried landing, three double bedrooms and a luxury bathroom. Available on a fixed term basis, unfurnished, part furnished or fully furnished from early September.

The location: situated in an enviable Old Town location just moments from the independent shops, restaurants and traditional pubs which line the High Street and George Street and just a short stroll from the beach and the West Hill.
