The property: An idyllic Georgian home positioned within private grounds measuring approximately 1/3 of an acre and accessed via double gates with ample off-road parking. Having undergone a sympathetic restoration the accommodation is beautifully presented throughout and showcases a wealth of original and enhanced features including double glazed sash windows and high ceilings. The ground floor comprises a charming living room with a wood burning stove and a large kitchen and dining space which benefits from a walk-in pantry. The kitchen offers plenty of room for a dining table and a breakfast bar, creating a sociable space which acts as the hub of the family home, there is also an additional reception room with a large bay window and exceptionally high ceilings. The five equally proportioned double bedrooms span the upper two floors together with a family bathroom and additional shower room. Throughout the house there is ample built-in storage. Externally the private gardens are a particular feature, wrapping around three sides of the house they are mainly laid to lawn offering various seating areas and a lovely outlook across the valley of the Old Town. At the front of the property there are double gates opening to a driveway with private parking for 2-3 vehicles, there is a large shed/workshop and the current owners have chickens.

The location: situated in a very private and picturesque setting, elevated above the Old Town and nestled back from the road via a private road for residents use it's positioned a leisurely stroll from the beach, the East and West Hill and Hastings Old Town which offers a collection of restaurants, traditional pubs, artisan stores and antique shops, making it perfectly placed for life by the Coast.
