The property: a three bedroom Georgian terraced house located in a prime position on the seafront in Hastings Old Town, adjacent to the beach. Having been internally rebuilt in 2016 the accommodation is arranged over four beautifully presented floors offering a versatile layout, you enter on the ground floor which is used as a bright, dual aspect living room while the kitchen and dining space is housed on the lower level, fitted with contemporary kitchen units. Spanning the two upper floors there are three bedrooms, two of which are well proportioned double rooms, together with a stylish family bathroom where there is a shower over a bathtub. The property has most recently been used as a successful holiday let and is being sold with no onward chain.

The location: occupying an unrivalled position on the seafront it is just meters from the beach this fantastic house is ideally placed to enjoy all that the Old Town has to offer, it's within immediate walking distance of local independent shops, galleries, restaurants and traditional pubs.
