Pleasantly situated to the far end of a 'no through road', this five-bedroom detached property has in recent times undergone a wide range of refurbishment and has been thoughtfully extended to provide a most appealing family home. Internally the property is enhanced by en-suite to three bedrooms, three reception rooms and enjoys many character features including latch doors, exposed timber floors and dual-sided cast iron stoves set to open brick surround. Originally the property was a pair of semi-detached gatehouses to the former railway line, converted in the early 1970s into one dwelling. The property stands opposite the landmark Woodhall Junction Station House and adjoins the water rail cycle path. The shopping, social and educational facilities are approximately one mile distance. A viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the position and appeal this property offers.

Woodhall Spa offers a good range of shopping and social facilities. The village with its tree lined avenues, Edwardian hotels, Kinema in the Woods, and possibly one of the best inland golf courses in Britain has become increasingly popular as a residential setting. The market town of Horncastle lies approximately six miles away and stands in the gateway to the Lincolnshire Wolds, an area designated as being of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The historic City of Lincoln and the East Coast both lie within driving distance.
