Burgh-by-Sands is a beautiful village laying peacefully within the Solway Coast AONB, to the North-West of Cumbria. A village with many attractions and steeped with history, including the world famous Hadrian's wall passing through the village and a Bronze statue of King Edward on the village green. Within the village is St Michaels Church, built within the roman fort on Hadrian's wall in the late 12th century. Further amenities in the village include the Greyhound Inn and Burgh by Sands School. A wider selection of amenities including supermarkets, garages and secondary schools can be located within the border city of Carlisle, a 15 minute drive East. For those who love the great outdoors, the Lake District National Park is accessible within an hour, providing endless hours of beautiful walks, picturesque scenery and all the exceptional recreational activities that Lakeland has to offer. For those requiring rail connections, Carlisle Citadel Station is on the West Coast Mainline, providing fast and frequent services South to London in around 3hours 23minutes and North to Edinburgh in 1hour 16minutes.
