Park Terrace

Hallbankgate, CA8 2PL

Guide Price £240,000

Enjoying a breathtaking elevated position within the North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, this characterful and deceptively spacious mid-terraced former miner's cottage is beautifully appointed throughout, boasting panoramic views over the Solway and Scottish Hills to the front and over open fields and the Geltsdale Nature Reserve to the rear. Perfectly situated in a lovely village setting just a short drive from the A69 and Brampton, the property offers a stylish dining kitchen, cosy living room with wood-burning stove, and a versatile adjoining hall/study area with fitted storage. There are three bedrooms, a modern bathroom, and a convenient WC off the main bedroom, complemented by double glazing and central heating. Externally, the property enjoys both front and rear gardens, the rear being particularly generous, backing onto open countryside and including a timber shed, chicken coop, and useful store. Additionally, the property benefits a single garage and coal/log store, along with shared residents parking to the front of the property. A truly special home and lifestyle opportunity that must be viewed to be fully appreciated, contact Hunters today to arrange your visit.

Hallbankgate is a picturesque village, highly regarded for its natural beauty, welcoming community, and rich local history. The village offers a range of everyday amenities, including the Hallbankgate Village School, the Belted Will Inn, and the Hallbankgate Hub, a community-run shop and café at the heart of village life, as well as easy access to scenic countryside walks and outdoor pursuits. Just down the road lies the renowned Farlam Hall, a luxury country house hotel and restaurant, perfect for fine dining or special occasions. The nearby market town of Brampton provides additional amenities such as shops, public houses, a doctor's surgery, and both primary and secondary schools. Local attractions including Talkin Tarn Country Park and Castle Carrock Reservoir are only a short drive away, with the North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty on the doorstep and the Lake District National Park within an hour's reach. Excellent transport links are also close by, with the A69 offering convenient connections to Carlisle, the M6 motorway, and the North East.
