Vast potential to be the ideal family home requiring modernisation and upgrading. Featuring south Lakeland views from the rear and original charming 1930's character.

The ideal project for investors or those looking to create their forever home. The layout consists of two reception rooms, a light and airy 1930's entrance hallway with original stained and leaded entry doorway, under-stair storage and further access into the fitted kitchen that benefits from a great view, the kitchen has the potential to be opened into the dining room to create the ultimate entraining kitchen diner. To the first floor there is a sizeable landing accessing three bedrooms and a generous bathroom suite with fitted storage.

Accessible from the rear of the property, there is a under-store and two basement rooms providing potential subject to permissions, to create either a self-contained flat or additional family accommodation.

Outside the property there is a small front walled garden, driveway parking for one vehicle and a side driveway leading to a garage (please note driving isn't possible with a car to the garage) to the back of the property there are great Lakeland views towards Kentmere Valley backing up to allotments. The garden is well maintained and features a central lawn with established borders.

Please note that due to this property being under the same ownership for over 60 years, the title is unregistered.
