DESCRIPTION

A three-bedroom stone built cottage tucked away in one of Kendal's many Courts and Yards. Located on Stramongate and near to the bridge crossing the River Kent, the property is ideally placed for enjoying the town centre amenities and yet is hidden away from the everyday hustle and bustle. The accommodation is spread across three floors and comprises of a living room and kitchen to the ground floor, a bedroom and bathroom to the first floor, and two further bedrooms to the top floor.

There is plenty of character features with exposed beams, a wood burner in living room, and a wooden turning staircase that winds up the floor levels. Outside the front you will find a private enclosed yard which is a great place to sit out in of an evening and enjoy the fresh air. Although there is no dedicated parking with the house, you can get a car through the yard entrance for delivering bigger items and groceries.

With the benefits of gas central heating and double glazing, this a great house for first-time buyers, investors looking to boost their portfolio (expect rent in the region of £850 pcm), or a second home or holiday let.

Kendal offers a plethora of restaurants, cafes and bars and a wealth of independent shops and is a lively and vibrant place to live. For those looking for a holiday home, access to the Lake District National Park is close by with Windermere being just 9 miles away.

Such is the privacy of the location, you might need a little help finding the property so use:
