A particularly beautiful example of an extended FOUR bedroom 1930's family home in the ever popular Hempsted village.

This home is without doubt ideal for families looking for extra living space as the main house has been extended both on the ground floor and upstairs. The homely living room has now been opened out into to the dining room and rear extension to create an impressive and incredibly spacious 12m long room, charmingly intersected by a stunning hardwood staircase.

This fantastic home also has the added bonus of a fully converted garage complete with kitchenette and toilet – an ideal office, workshop or garden room.
