WATER CLOSE HOUSE

BACKBARROW, CUMBRIA

Tucked away in the picturesque village of Backbarrow, at the southern tip of Lake Windermere, lies Water Close House. A beautifully restored four-bedroom period home that perfectly captures the charm and character of traditional Lake District living. Set within the heart of the Lake District National Park, this enchanting property offers a rare blend of 18th-century heritage and thoughtfully integrated modern comforts. Lovingly refurbished with care and attention to detail, the property retains much of its original soul, exposed timber beams, and slate flagstones sit harmoniously alongside tasteful modern finishes. The interior exudes warmth and authenticity, with each room reflecting the quiet elegance of a home that has evolved gently over time. The large sitting room, complete with a traditional open fire offers a welcoming retreat on cooler evenings, while the timber double-glazed windows and a newly installed oil boiler ensure comfort throughout the seasons. Lived in by the same family for 58 years, the cottage has been maintained beautifully, preserving its traditional character and timeless appeal. Enjoying a sunny aspect with lovely views across to Bigland Fell, Water Close House is surrounded by neat, well-kept gardens that and two large stone outbuildings, originally used as stables complement the home's character. Whether you are seeking a full-time residence steeped in history or a peaceful countryside retreat close to the lakes, this captivating property offers an exceptional opportunity to embrace the very best of Lakeland life.

Set slightly elevated above the river Leven, Water Close house enjoy a particularly charming outlook and delightful river views from the house . The nearby Lakeside and Haverthwaite Steam Railway adds a nostalgic touch to the surroundings, and beyond lies a vast expanse of mixed woodland with open access, perfect for leisurely walks, wildlife spotting, or peaceful exploration. Backbarrow itself is a vibrant and friendly community, home to a primary school, doctor's surgery, the Lakeland Motor Museum with its inviting café, and a welcoming village pub in nearby Haverthwaite. The location offers the perfect balance of tranquillity and accessibility, with the A590 providing excellent connections to the Furness Peninsula, Kendal and the M6 motorway at Junction 36.
