

Manchester Road, Leigh

£130,000

Council Tax:

Tenure: Leasehold

For sale, a two-bedroom terraced house in need of renovation, ideally suited to first-time buyers or families seeking to make a home their own. The property boasts a single reception room, a kitchen, and a garden, each offering unique features that contribute to its charm and potential.

As you enter the property, you are welcomed by a spacious reception room. Large windows fill the space with natural light, illuminating the wooden flooring and creating a bright and airy environment. An elegant fireplace serves as the focal point of the room, offering the promise of cosy evenings in.

The kitchen, bathed in natural light, offers ample space for cooking and dining. Although in need of updating, it provides a blank canvas for you to create your dream culinary space.

- Spacious reception room
- Double bedroom
- Proximity to parks
- Large windows
- Walking distance to transport
- Nearby schools

