FARM

BIDDENDEN

LITTLE RANDOLPHS FARM

Little Randolphs Farm is the very essence of refined countryside living. Six stunning houses will form an idyllic courtyard setting, with the grounds enhanced by soft landscaping.

Design influences have been drawn from the most-admired architecture seen across Kent. The resulting homes are a contemporary take on traditional architecture, with many highly- practical and desirable aspects.

Choose from three, four or five bedrooms, with each home enjoying a large private garden, a car port for at least two vehicles and a generous, luxury specification.

Biddenden:

beauty in abundance

Biddenden is the epitome of the good life in the Garden of England. Here the landscape is verdant and the soil so fertile it supports bountiful vineyards and fruit-laden orchards. The wider Weald of Kent setting also brings with it natural beauty that stretches for miles.

Biddenden is characterised by historically important buildings, including grand listed houses, 17th century Flemish weavers' cottages and the 12th century All Saints church. Together with the iconic sign at the village green, which depicts the famous 'Biddenden Maids', they tell the fascinating story of this picturesque location.

Walk to a thriving village centre

Step outside your front door, walk 10 minutes and find yourself at the heart of a historic High Street. All of Biddenden's main amenities are located along one main thoroughfare for ease and a strong sense of community. Stop for brunch at the Bakehouse Café, pick up essentials at the convenience store, book a table at The West House restaurant or meet friends at The Red Lion pub. The High Street is also where you'll find the village's playschool, primary school and church.

The wider village doesn't disappoint. Close by is Biddenden Vineyard, with its extensive on-site shop, The Three Chimneys - a pub that's been serving patrons for more than 500 years - and Indian restaurant Gram Spice. Another village highlight is Tractorfest – a spectacular annual event that celebrates rural life.

Learning & leisure

Families are attracted to Biddenden for its access to A* educational facilities. In the village itself is Biddenden PlaySchool and John Mayne Church of England primary school – both with a ‘Good’ Ofsted rating. St Michael’s and Frittenden are alternative Church of England primary schools less than three miles away.

For those with older children, Biddenden is in the priority catchment for Cranbrook Grammar School – a valuable and desirable aspect. The village is also served by Homewood School and Sixth Form Centre, Benenden School and The Dulwich School Cranbrook – the latter providing independent educational options.

Walk eight minutes from Little Randolph’s Farm and you’ll discover a cluster of recreational opportunities. Residents can enjoy a private footpath linking your new home to Millennium Field, with its stream, ponds and woodland, is joined by a play park, 20.5 acres of adjoining nature and conservation areas, plus lawn tennis, bowls and squash clubs.

Immaculate greens can be found a short drive away at The Chart Hills Golf Club - the first Signature Sir Nick Faldo-designed golf course in Europe. Another hub of activity is Bloomsbury Biddenden - home of wellness retreats, creative workshops, yoga classes, live music and The Garden Eatery.

Local areas to love

The Weald of Kent is renowned for its chocolate box locations and a short drive away is one of the best - Tenterden. This small town buzzes with boutiques, restaurants and pubs, with Waitrose, Boots, FatFace and Mint Velvet adding big brand appeal to the High Street. Tenterden is also home to the Kent & East Sussex Railway, a three-day Christmas market and the award-winning Chapel Down Vineyard.

Nearby Headcorn is a go-to village for a number of reasons. As well as the location of the closest mainline train station, it's crammed full of medieval buildings, interesting shops, country pubs and walking trails. Don't forget to look up – Headcorn Aerodrome is a favourite among Spitfire and Tiger Moth pilots, and it hosts the annual Battle of Britain Show.

Travel a little further and you'll find yourself in Cranbrook, with its stunning smock windmill and array of independent shops, while Sissinghurst Castle & Gardens and Hole Park Gardens are a short drive away.

About Wedgewood

At Wedgewood Homes we have established an excellent reputation for developing quality new homes. All aspects of our developments are controlled in house by our teams of designers, architects and project managers.

Coastlands features glass-fronted balconies, panoramic floor-to-ceiling windows, a distinctive roofline, an extensive landscaped communal garden, a luxury specification and allocated parking. Throughout the scheme the judges were struck by the meticulous attention to detail and high-quality finishes, characterised by bespoke staircases built onsite and through fully chosen exterior materials. The Wedgewood team has taken a great deal of pride in the scheme – deservedly so. It is hard to find fault with this superb example of what a small, passionate team can achieve.
