High Brooms Station offers a regular service to London Bridge (41 minutes), London Cannon Street (51 minutes) and London Charing Cross (52 minutes). Meanwhile, Tunbridge Wells and Tonbridge Stations are also accessible by car.

Leisure

Silverdale Mews is located within a short walk of Grosevenor and Hilbert Park which is one of Tunbridge Wells oldest public parks. Recently updated with Heritage and Big Lottery Funding, the park boasts a large play area, a café, an ornamental lake, a bowling green, a hireable community Hub, two full size grass football pitches and a kick around area marked for 5-a-side football and basketball. Additionally, there is the Ancient Woodland, wetland area and community orchard just waiting to be explored.

The Tunbridge Wells Sport Centre is also within walking distance and offers a range of facilities and activities, including exercise classes, soft play sessions, a well equipped gym, four indoor courts and three pools. Additionally, in the locality there is a well regarded rock climbing gym and martial arts school.

The historic spa town of Tunbridge Wells offers a wide array of amenities, with an exciting mix of independent boutiques and high street favourites. Always more to explore - the town boasts substantial collection of coffee shops, restaurants and bars. The town also benefits from food fairs and markets.

The Trinity Theatre & Arts Centre hosts a varied programme of art exhibitions, theatre, films, dance, opera and music productions. While the Forum is renowned for its diverse evening events. Additionally, set against the stunning backdrop of the Georgian Colonnade in the heart of the historic Pantiles are the famous 'Jazz on the Pantiles' summer nights.

Schooling

Silverdale Mews is within walking distance of St Johns Primary School. Recently rated Good by Ofsted, the report noted that 'the school values of honesty, respect, empathy, courage and inclusivity are woven through the fabric of daily life'.

Renowned for its state education, Tunbridge Wells boasts The Skinners School, Tunbridge Wells Grammar School for Boys and Tunbridge Wells Girls' Grammar School. Additionally, the faith based schools of Bennett Memorial and St Gregory's are also in the locality. In the neighbouring town of Tonbridge The Judd School, Tonbridge Grammar School for Girls and Weald of Kent Grammar School are also sought after.
