Effortlessly blending a traditional Kentish aesthetic with contemporary features, The Nicholson is a spectacular 4-bedroom residence designed to impress.

At the heart of the home is the full-width Kitchen/Dining/Family area, and hosts a range of top-of-the-line appliances from Miele in a stylish German designed Kitchen suite. Perfect for the rural lifestyle, the adjacent utility room is an ever practical addition to the home.

The living room is centred around a luxurious Marble Hill fireplace, and a spacious study features a bay window. The ground floor also benefits from a WC with a large mirror and feature tiling.

Bedrooms 1 and 2 both have bespoke fully fitted and carcassed wardrobes, and exceptional spa-like en-suites with feature tiling in the showers along with feature LED lighting and boutique sanitaryware.

Bedrooms 3 and 4 also host bespoke fully fitted and carcassed wardrobes, and are serviced by the family bathroom, following suit luxuriously and adding a double-ended bath with Crosswater designer controls.

The entire house is heated by an A+++ rated Air Source Heat Pump in perfect combination with underfloor heating and exceeding levels of insulation, facilitating a pleasant ambient temperature efficiently and effectively.

Smart Home technology is integrated in the form of Control4 and Lutron systems, with the control of the heating, lighting, blinds, media and security at your fingertips.
