Dogmore

Dogmore is a well presented family home, set in grounds of approx. 0.75 acres, standing opposite the green in the ever popular village of Stoke Row.

The property comprises a spacious entrance hall which leads to a study and south facing conservatory. The delightful kitchen has views over the garden and leads through to a double aspect, open plan dining/sitting room with doors leading to a sizeable terrace for alfresco dining. In addition there is a utility room off the kitchen with access to the front of the property.

Upstairs there are 5 good sized bedrooms, with 3 benefitting from en-suites, and a family bathroom.

Separate from the main house is a versatile outbuilding/annexe with a w.c. and kitchenette.

Outside

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with mature planting, raised vegetable beds with a greenhouse and shed.

There is a large terrace ideal for outdoor entertaining, plus a second secluded patio area.

To the front of the property is a good sized driveway with ample parking.

Situation

Stoke Row is a very popular, unspoilt village with a wonderful community supporting all the village activities which are varied and plentiful. There is an independent village shop stocked with artisan produce and also serves as a coffee shop and vibrant communal hub for the village. The local pub, The Cherry Tree Inn, is very popular and well supported. Stoke Row garage is again a fabulous facility, with a friendly and highly respected staff for refuel, repair and care.

There is a very highly regarded local primary school, and a vibrant village hall and separate Pavilion recreation ground with fitness, tennis, cricket, and cycling clubs among its activities. The renowned restaurant, The Crooked Billet, is also in the village.

Stoke Row is nestled in the beautiful Chiltern Hills and the immediate area has wonderful walking and riding on footpaths and bridleways. Henley on Thames and Reading are easily accessible with rail links to central London including the newly opened Elizabeth Line.
