Upper Goddards Farm

Upper Goddards Farm is a very pretty Grade II listed house, which has been lovingly restored in recent years while retaining the quintessential character of its 17th-century origins, with attractive beams and tiled floors. The accommodation is arranged over two floors plus a useful cellar room. The flow of the rooms is flexible, the ground floor has a pretty sitting room and separate dining room, a hand-built country kitchen which is centrally located and leads through to a large games room with a self-contained home office/studio over (with its own entrance) and a small integral garage. Also on the ground floor, is a large utility/boot room, next to the cellar and a cloakroom/shower room.

The first floor has the principal suite, 5 further bedrooms and family bathroom.

The Garden (About 1.2 acres)

The main house sits on the beautiful Shogmoor Lane with attractive borders and flower beds, behind the house the garden is lovely, the driveway leads to pretty rear garden with an array of useful outbuildings, all with power, including the original granary sitting on staddle stones, which is currently used as a workshop, but would make an ideal studio. Off the driveway is a detached oak frame garage with two open bays and one with double doors and a first floor store room. Directly behind the house is a pretty paved terrace.

Tucked away from the house is a beautiful lily pond which has been curated with wildflowers and a lovely sitting area to enjoy the peace and the views across the valley. The upper section is a classic kitchen garden, with rabbit proof veggie plot, soft fruit cages, chicken run and a wonderful National Trust-designed "Alitex" greenhouse with a rain harvesting tank, heating and light. This area has its own patio terrace, with another wild flower meadow and wonderful views across the valley, certainly a place sit and take in the serene setting.

Situation

Shogmoor Lane connects the two villages of Skirmet and Frieth in The Hambleden Valley, designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and widely regarded as one of the most beautiful areas of countryside within an hour of London, in the Chiltern Hills. There are a number of idyllic villages close by, Hambleden, Fingest, and Turville with some superb village pubs and in Hambleden, a village store. The larger centres of Marlow and Henley on Thames are within easy reach, as is the River Thames with Hambleden lock on The Thames Path at the end of the valley. The M40 (Jct 5) is about a 10 minute drive.

Equestrian (about 7.39 acres)

A particularly fine feature of Upper Goddards farm is the four post and rail paddocks with water troughs, a grass training arena, and a stable block (moveable). There is direct access to a bridle path and the woodland beyond, making it ideal for riding out, and another bridleway close by on the lane which leads up the valley leading to Parmoor.
