73a Bell Street

With planning permission granted for residential use, 73a Bell Street presents an exciting opportunity to create a spacious two storey apartment in the heart of Henley-on-Thames.

This Grade II listed property is full of character with well proportioned rooms and exposed beams and would create a home of just under 1800sqft, just a short stroll from the town centre and River Thames.

The property is entered off Bell Street up a flight of stairs to the first floor. The current configuration has a large reception room, with bay window, to the rear of the property, at the front of the property there are three further, good sized, rooms, with a kitchen and two wc's to the rear.

The second floor of the property has a further two large rooms, plus an additional space that was previously used for storage.

Situation - Central Henley

Henley-on-Thames is an attractive market town situated in beautiful and unspoilt countryside, approximately 36 miles west of Central London. Henley offers a wide range of excellent shopping, prize winning restaurants as well as a 3 screen cinema and theatre. The town is world famous for the annual Henley Royal Regatta and hosts the Henley Festival of Music & Arts, Henley Literary Festival and regional farmers markets. The prestigious Leander Club, well supported Rugby Club and Phyllis Court (a private members club), are all within walking distance. There are numerous primary and secondary schools as well as Henley College which also offers adult learning facilities. There is golf at Henley and Huntercombe, equestrian centres, racing at nearby Ascot, Windsor and Newbury, and excellent walks beside the river and in the nearby Chiltern Hills.
