Piccadilly House

This stylish detached house has accommodation arranged over two floors and is very nicely presented with careful attention to detail, retaining some of the original period features. Stepping into an open plan reception hall, there is an immediate feeling of calm and contemporary style,; this area directly connects all the ground floor rooms creating a house with excellent flow.

Upstairs, there are five bedrooms and three bathrooms. The main suite has a superbly appointed ensuite with views and a walk-in dressing room. The second bedroom is also en suite, with bedrooms three and four sharing a family bathroom. Bedroom five is currently used as a study.

Overall, the house is very well presented and all the principal rooms enjoy lovely views over the grounds and rolling countryside beyond.

Situation

Piccadilly House is located just outside the Chiltern village of Lane End, which has a useful selection of shops and eateries. Marlow is close by for shopping, some fine restaurants and walks along the River Thames. Accessing the M40 is easy from Stokenchurch just beyond Lane End. There are some wonderful local walks and rides in the surrounding countryside.

Outside

The house is approached through wrought iron gates onto a carriage driveway drawing up in front of the house and round to the detached double garage. The house itself has a covered porch and patio surrounding the house and overlooking the garden and the field beyond.

At the bottom of the garden is a five bar gate leading into the paddock, which can also be accessed from the road.
