Suna Court

In a discreet location in the centre of this charming village, Suna Court was built about 50 years ago in a traditional style with elegant features including high ceilings, dado rails and ornate coving.

A covered porch and double doors lead into the spacious hallway with polished oak floor and into the dining room. Steps lead down to the sitting room with wood burning stove and stone fireplace, a lovely full height multi-paned bay window overlooking the gardens and doors to the terrace.

The kitchen is well-fitted with a range of bespoke painted wall and floor units, built-in appliances, granite worktops, space for a breakfast table and doors to the garden.

Up the graceful staircase, with feature window, is the landing off which are the bedrooms. The main bedroom has a floor to ceiling bay window, fitted wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. There is a family bathroom and three further bedrooms. A door from bedroom 3 leads into the annexe study and into the reception/bedroom with en-suite bathroom.

Stairs lead down to the utility room, store room and garage. The annexe has a separate front door making it ideal for nanny/granny or separate income if required.

Outside

The gravelled driveway has parking for two cars and leads to the single garage (currently used as storage). The garden has been cleverly landscaped to make the most of the sunshine with paved terraces edged with richly planted flower beds, inbuilt seating, a gravel garden and water feature.
