Stag Farm

The setting of Stag Farm is unique, with beautiful views over rolling countryside - yet the location is in the heart of the sought-after village of Stoke Row, just off the village green.

The farmhouse has a wonderfully traditional feel and sits in an elevated position which gives commanding views over its land. Attached to the house is a large barn, with beautiful beam work. This area in particular provides huge scope for extending the main accommodation and transforming the farmhouse into a substantial country house. This would be subject to the usual planning process.

The Land

To the front of the farmhouse is a long drive through the beautiful orchard planted with several varieties of apple, cherry, pear and plum trees. There is a part-walled garden with herbaceous flower borders and a large area of lawn. The majority of the land lies to the north and east and is divided into fenced and gated paddocks.

Currently there is a flock of ewe lambs grazing the land. The fields stretch down a gentle hill between Newlands Lane and Nottwood Lane. In all, the land and garden amount to 7.6 acres.

Location

The village of Stoke Row lies 7 miles west of Henley-on-Thames. Renowned for its community and quintessential village feel, there is a community run sports pavilion, with tennis and cricket clubs. There is a local primary school and, just outside the village in Highmoor, a nursery.

The village hall and pavilion each host Yoga and Pilates classes.. In the centre of the village is a popular coffee shop and deli. There is a local garage and two well-regarded pubs/restaurants.

For schooling there is Langtree secondary school, The Oratory School and Prep, also closeby are Moulsoford and Cranford House Schools.
