ESTATE AGENTS & VALUERS

An elegant looking and extremely versatile semi-detached family property - being part of a former Victorian Gentleman's residence. The four bedroom/two reception house stands well within its own level south facing gardens, with some superb views south-eastwards over the River Torridge and the surrounding countryside. This fine property is situated within one of the most sought-after residential addresses in the area and within walking distance to the river and its footpath.

The property retains a wealth of character features you would associate with a building of this period including high ceilings, ceiling covings etc. The rooms are well proportioned and versatile and suit the needs of a modern family with an adjoining former stable block (currently a two storey utility/family playroom/sleeping area - offering potential for 'work from home' space, and/or a dependent relative. Nearly every room enjoys an abundance of natural south-facing light and airy aspect which is a feature of particular note.

The outside of the property does not disappoint either, there is ample off-road parking for numerous vehicles and a spacious garage with power and lighting. Directly adjacent to the house is a timber deck and then the extensive lawn garden. The gardens are impressive, spacious and level – perfect for families and can be bathed in south facing sunshine when the weather is good. There are raised beds and some pretty borders.

The agents have no hesitation in recommending a full internal inspection to fully appreciate this quality residence in a highly sought after and convenient location.
