ESTATE AGENTS & VALUERS

A stunning five bedroomed double fronted period house situated in an idyllic setting in the heart of Appledore. Positioned just meters from the vibrant quayside, independent shops, galleries, restaurants and traditional pubs, this fantastic property offers a unique opportunity to embrace life on the north Devon coast.

Unfolding over three spacious storeys, this elegant Georgian Grade II listed home offers a wealth of period features including sash windows, panelling, original floorboards, and fireplaces throughout. The ground floor is arranged as an inviting reception hall which leads to a gracious, formal reception room whilst spanning the rear of the plan is an expansive open plan kitchen, dining room and further reception where light floods the space from the bespoke orangery roof and double doors frame views of lush greenery beyond. A sweeping staircase from the reception hall rises to the upper floors where there are five double bedrooms served by four bathrooms.

The secluded rear garden is a simply spectacular, nature-lovers' paradise with a pathway leading through areas of picture-perfect secret garden featuring peaceful seating areas and ponds and opening into a generous expanse of lawn to the rear, bordered by mature shrubs and trees.

Set in a sought-after location in this desirable seaside village this fantastic property offers a piece of Appledore's history and is not one to be missed...

Appledore is a quaint port and ship building village with the most picturesque quayside and narrow cobbled streets providing a range of amenities including mini Supermarket, Post Office, Primary School, Library, places of worship, a selection of Galleries and Craft Shops together with many Pubs and Restaurants.
