STANDING ON AN 0.5 ACRE PLOT - Chantry House doesn't just rely on its historic charm; it seamlessly blends the old with the new by utilising modern air-source heat pumps to provide heating for both the house and the pool, as well as the hot water system. This thoughtful integration of modern technology ensures that you enjoy comfort and efficiency all year round.

If you're seeking a home that combines history, character, and modern convenience, Chantry House is the perfect choice. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of history while enjoying the comforts of contemporary living in this enchanting property.

This property is an ideal choice for those seeking a harmonious balance of village life and modern amenities.

Furneux Pelham offers an idyllic village lifestyle, blending history, community, and convenience. The nearby St Mary The Virgin Church features a clock tower with the motto 'Time flies, mind your business', and a vaulted ceiling with painted angels. Families benefit from the well-regarded Furneux Pelham Church Of England School, centrally located. The Brewery Tap, a welcoming pub, serves local beers and wood-fired pizzas, with a beer garden and children's playground. The added village shop ensures everyday essentials and treats are always close at hand.
