the details...

"Torre Cottage is not just a home; it is a chapter in history, lovingly written and ready for its next custodian. Here, time slows, stories gather, and life is lived a little more beautifully."

We are proud and delighted to bring to market Torre Cottage, a truly captivating Grade II Listed thatched cottage, believed to date from the 16th century and once forming part of the rich architectural heritage that defines the historic heart of East Ogwell.

Lovingly tended to by its current Owners for nearly two decades, Torre Cottage is a beautifully preserved example of traditional cob and stone construction, with a recently renewed ridge to its quintessential thatched roof (March 2021). Nestled in a peaceful and picturesque Devonshire village, this home offers a rare blend of rural charm, period character, and everyday practicality - all wrapped in the warmth of centuries past.

Approached via a pedestrian gate off a quiet country lane, you are immediately welcomed into the storybook setting of wraparound gardens, home to mature apple trees, perennial borders, a greenhouse, and even a former piggery now repurposed as a charming garden store. The gardens offer privacy, tranquillity and a sense of quiet history, enclosed by traditional stone walls.

Stepping through the front door, you're immediately embraced by the warmth and character of the home. A welcoming entrance hall reveals exposed stone walls and ancient timber beams- a theme that continues throughout - while the heart of the home is undoubtedly the main sitting room, where a magnificent inglenook fireplace and twin window seats frame views over the front garden. Here, family and friends can gather around the fire, as generations surely have before.

The kitchen and breakfast room, with its slate flooring, exposed timber beams and an impressive Rangemaster cooker, is both generous in proportion and rich in character. Beyond this heart-of-the-home setting, a series of flexible reception rooms unfolds: a cosy snug featuring an oil-burning stove lead through into versatile media room/home office or potential fourth bedroom, thoughtfully converted from a former garage. Additional storage areas are cleverly incorporated.

Upstairs, the layout is cleverly split across two staircases, giving the master bedroom a private access route while still offering interconnection via a shared shower room. There are three double bedrooms in total, as well as a beautifully fitted family bathroom, with exposed beams and charming heritage features throughout.

The grounds are just as inviting. The garden is not only a delight to the eye but a haven for gardeners, children, or simply those who relish outdoor living. The is also a stone-built piggery, timber shed, greenhouse and bin store for those essential needs. This property also comes with three private parking spaces, including a larger double space suitable for multiple vehicles.

East Ogwell is a sought-after village with a vibrant community spirit, excellent primary school, a beloved local pub, village hall, and scenic walks in all directions. A short drive away lies Newton Abbot with its market town conveniences and mainline station offering direct access to London Paddington. The coastlines of Shaldon and Teignmouth and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park are both within easy reach.
