Price Guide £189,990

Silverman Black is delighted to offer this fantastic recently refurbished studio apartment located on a popular "Flowers" development close to the centre of Hackbridge and only about 5 minutes walk to Hackbridge BR station. A bright and stylish home, the current owner has spared no expense upgrading the facilities within the apartment which now features a refitted shower room with full suite, a new kitchen suite with Smeg hob, electric oven and new extractor fan, new "Triple A" rated windows and a new electric heating system - the fully programmable Dimplex "Quantum" system being among the best on the market - which even has sensors to read the weather conditions outside and alter the heating to ensure that the apartment is never too hot or cold! In addition the apartment has a good term left on the lease (90 years), a large lockable storage cupboard located off the communal hallway, a private allocated parking space (with ample visitors facilities) and use of a well maintained, tranquil rear garden. Being sold with full vacant possession and no onward chain, viewing is highly recommended.
