This charming property has original features and is well presented throughout.

The living room is spacious with great character sash windows and a feature fireplace. There are two double bedrooms and separate eat in kitchen, utility room and family bathroom. There are French doors that lead out from the kitchen to a private garden, also with the convenience of side access for your bikes or buggies.

Located only moments from Fulwell Station with direct links into Waterloo. If you drive this also will not be an issue as there is plenty of parking. Shops and restaurants of Teddington are only a short stroll away.

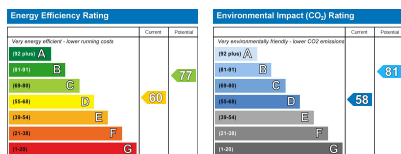

Chase Buchanan are bonded members of ARLA Propertymark.
