A unique opportunity to live in a semi detached bungalow nestled in a quiet location only moments from Teddington High Street.

This property oozes character and offers split level accommodation. On the garden level is an impressive lounge with vaulted ceilings with double doors to a bright kitchen with doors leading to a large, private and tranquil garden. The bedroom offers lots of wardrobe storage and has a feature window with views over the beautiful garden. Across the landing is the modern bathroom with marble floor tiles. There is a lower level to an occasional room which is perfect for storage or a home office.

With the addition of allocated parking and bike storage, this property will not be around for long.
