

Tilldale House 34-40 High Street

Wooler, Northumberland, NE71 6BG

Offers Over £395,000

Welcome to this character five bedroom period property, centrally located on Wooler High Street. Located close to the National Park and a short drive to some of the best beaches in England, Wooler was recently voted as one of the best places to live in the north of England. The newly opened distillery, Ad Gefrin, is proving a popular visitors destination. Wooler's facilities include shops, cafes, restaurants, thriving sports clubs and other leisure pursuits.

Believed to date from the 17th century, Tilldale House, has retained many of its original features. A Visit England Silver Award Bed & Breakfast business, conveniently situated for hosting walkers on the St Cuthbert's Way pilgrimage route, has been operated from the property for many years but it would also make a delightful family home.

The spacious interior comprises of an entrance hall which gives access to a boot room, a dining room with feature inglenook fireplace, a living room with French doors to the garden and through to the kitchen and snug/office with a log burning stove set into an attractive inglenook fireplace. Additionally, the ground floor annex offers versatility for different living arrangements, whether for guests, extended family, or a home office.

In addition, the charming cottage style garden, houses a large stone barn with the potential to convert into extra living accommodation, or a studio/workshop.

See how you could develop this delightful versatile space. Don't miss out on the chance to own this piece of Wooler's history and create your own next chapter. Book a viewing today!
