Mindrum, TD12 4QG

Offers Over £230,000

www.aitchisons.co

Nestled in the picturesque setting with stunning open views of the surrounding countryside, this charming stone built cottage, built in 1885, offers a delightful blend of character and charm with modern comfort. The current owners have been running the cottage as a successful holiday let, however, it would make an ideal permanent residence, or a weekend retreat.

The current owners have tastefully upgraded the cottage over the years, ensuring that the character and charm has not been spoilt, with many of the features being retained and enhanced. The cottage is entered at the front into an entrance hall, which leads to a spacious living room with superb open countryside views and an inglenook fireplace with a multi-fuel stove. Doorway from the living room into a good sized dining room with ample space for a table and chairs. There is a kitchen with beech cupboards and appliances and a useful rear porch. Also on the ground floor is a modern bathroom with an attractive tiled splashback. On the first floor are three bedrooms, two are double and the main bedroom has the open views, a fitted wardrobe and an attractive fireplace.

Parking available at the rear of the cottage and a large enclosed private garden with lawns and mature trees and shrubberies. Whether you are looking for a permanent residence or a weekend getaway, this cottage offers a unique opportunity to enjoy the charm of rural living while being close to local amenities.

In summary, this delightful cottage at Howtel Farm Cottages is a rare find, combining charm with modern living. Its idyllic location and stunning views make it a must-see for anyone seeking a serene lifestyle in the heart of the countryside. Contact our Wooler office to arrange a suitable appointment to view.
