In Detail

This joyful and characterful 1930s family home offers five beds, two baths, an extended kitchen / dining / family room and a landscaped garden, perfectly positioned on The Peak, one of the area’s most desirable and friendly residential roads, close to Wells Park, excellent local schools and superb transport links.

A bright and welcoming entrance hall sets the tone, leading into a house that feels both generous and uplifting. True to its 1930s origins, the rooms are wider, the proportions more substantial, and the natural light wonderfully abundant throughout the 1,448 sq ft footprint.

The front reception room is full of charm, finished in deep blue calming tones, coupled with a log burner and cosy furnishings, this makes it a place you would naturally retreat in the evening. To the rear, the open-plan kitchen / living area is the heart of the home: a vibrant, sociable space designed for everyday living and entertaining alike. Several windows pour in natural light, illuminating oak flooring and a beautifully crafted kitchen with bespoke cabinetry and high quality appliances.

The garden is a wonderful retreat, generous in size, predominantly lawned and framed by thoughtfully planted borders that bring colour, texture and seasonal interest throughout the year. There is also the added bonus of side access, ideal for bikes or practical day to day use.

Upstairs, are three comfortable double bedrooms, a smaller double, a single bedroom, an ensuite bathroom and a family bathroom with a separate shower, each space feeling individual yet cohesive.

Every corner of this home has been carefully considered, balancing fun and flair with practicality and comfort. The result is a house that feels like a home.

The Peak’s peaceful, community minded setting only adds to the appeal, offering a safe, friendly environment and a strong neighbourhood spirit.
