Location

1 Warneford Place is situated in Moreton-in-Marsh, a thriving Cotswold market town situated at the junction of the Fosseway (A429) and the Oxford-Worcester trunk road (A44). Moreton-in-Marsh has a good range of facilities including the Co-op supermarket which has a Post Office, the Aldi supermarket and Tesco convenience store together with a useful range of other shops and facilities suitable for everyday needs. The town also holds a large market every Tuesday. St David's Primary school is situated in the town with secondary schools available in Chipping Campden and Bourton-on-the-Water.

In addition Moreton-in-Marsh has a main line train station with a service to London Paddington via Oxford. It also benefits from a hospital and medical centre, garden centre and petrol filling station. There are sporting facilities available at the nearby Fire College.

Other nearby towns include Stow-on-the-Wold 4 miles, Stratford-upon-Avon 17 miles and Cheltenham 23 miles.

Cheltenham, is the principal commercial and cultural centre in the area and has excellent shopping facilities with most of the nationally known High Street retailers represented. It also has a wide number of hostelryes, a multiplex cinema, together with the Everyman Theatre as well as a number of annual festivals including the National Hunt and Literature, Music and Cricket festivals.

Description

1 Warneford Place is a semi-detached house believed to have been built in the 1930's as part of the former local authority housing stock. It is constructed of brick elevations under a pitched tiled roof. There is a single storey extension constructed of brick elevations under a flat roof together with a more recently added side conservatory.

uPVC and aluminium double glazing has been fitted throughout. 1 Warneford Place has an excellent corner plot with front garden and path leading past the side garden onto the rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn and interspersed with a number of fruit trees together with flower and herbaceous borders.

Approached from a track off St George's Close is a parking area and detached garage.

1 Warneford Place has been in the same ownership for many years and now lends itself for complete modernisation to a new owners taste.
