Description

Snipe Moss is a substantial detached farmhouse constructed of natural Cotswold stone under a reconstituted Cotswold stone slate roof. It has a pretty gabled front façade and equally pleasing south facing rear façade together with double glazed casement windows. According to the date stone it was built in 1990 and is set adjacent to its yard and stables. Snipe Moss has comfortable accommodation arranged over three floors. The front door leads to an impressive hall with a flagstone floor and winding staircase leading to the first floor galleried landing. In turn the hall serves a generous sitting room with its wood burning stove and dual aspect overlooking the mature garden. It also serves the dining room, cloakroom and kitchen/ breakfast room with its four oven AGA. There is a separate utility room and boot room giving access to the front and rear of the house together with the attached double garage with storage above.

On the first floor there is a master bedroom with bathroom and dressing room. There is also a guest bedroom suite, further bedroom and family bathroom together with a farm office which could be used as a single bedroom if required.

A spiral staircase leads to the second floor which provides 2 further bedrooms and another bathroom.

Snipe Moss was designed for the majority of the rooms to be south facing in order to take advantage of its magnificent position overlooking its attractive garden and land beyond.

Outside

A pair of 5 barred timber gates lead to a gravelled drive and parking area surrounded by deep flower and herbaceous borders and mature trees. The drive leads to the attached double garage.

The Formal Gardens

The gardens are situated mainly to the rear and side of the house and are laid to lawn with a raised paved gravelled terrace immediately abutting the house.

A pair of decorative iron gates lead to a further area of formal garden again mainly laid to lawn and interspersed by a number of specimen trees and adjoining the River Dikler set between two Cotswold stone bridges and forming a particularly attractive and peaceful feature of the property.

The Land

The land may be accessed from several points within the property and comprises 7 main fields which are mostly permanent pasture and field 6327 includes an attractive lake surrounded by bullrushes. There is an area of woodland and a small copse on the western boundary close to the yard.

Yard and Buildings

Situated adjacent to the house is a gate which leads to a yard and buildings comprising a store, haybarn and three loose boxes with small open barn attached. A gate leads to a holding paddock beyond a timber feed store.

Riparian Rights

The River Dikler runs from north to south and is a lovely spring fed wild trout stream which provides approximately 667 yards of double bank fishing. It offers the keen angler excellent dry fly fishing. The fishing rights are in hand.

The River Eye forms the boundary to the south west of the property. The riparian rights are unknown but the river would appear not to have been fished for very many years.

Rights of Way

A 'fenced off' bridleway [HSL 12] runs beyond the garden and paddock and mainly through field number 6327 crossing the bridge and to the highway.
