Key Features

A charming period four-bedroom semi-detached home, ideally situated in the heart of the highly sought-after Nottingham suburb of West Bridgford. Offering off-street parking and a private rear garden, this property is located within desirable school catchment areas. Early viewing is strongly recommended, as we anticipate a high level of interest.

The property is entered through a composite front entrance door, leading to an original arched porch and internal vestibule. The main front door opens into a spacious reception hall, with stairs rising to the second floor. Doors lead to the generously sized lounge, which features a large bay window to the front, allowing natural light to flood the room. The lounge also benefits from built-in shutter blinds and showcases original ceiling coving, a picture rail, and a stunning period-style Art Nouveau fireplace with a cast-iron surround and tiled open hearth. Adjacent is a dining/family room, also with period features, including a cast-iron fireplace set on a stone hearth, original ceiling coving, and a window to the rear elevation. The room also includes a serving hatch that opens into the kitchen.

The kitchen provides space for a dining table and is fitted with a range of buttermilk-fronted wall and base units, complemented by wooden worktops. It has space for a cooking range, with a splashback and extractor, and a Belfast sink set beneath a double-glazed window, offering views over the garden. The kitchen also features contemporary-style flooring, a modern radiator, and an additional window to the side elevation. A door leads to a WC with a two-piece contemporary suite.

To the first floor, the landing provides access to three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the master bedroom spanning the width of the property. There is a family bathroom with travertine-style flooring and wall tiles, featuring a freestanding bath with a shower over, a vanity unit with a wash basin, a low flush WC, and a wall-mounted TV (currently out of use). The top floor has a converted loft, providing an additional bedroom with an en-suite shower room, fitted with a modern three-piece suite.

To the front of the property, a gravel driveway offers parking for cars and provides access to the house, with a pathway leading to the side. The rear garden features a paved patio area directly accessible from the kitchen, ideal for seating. The garden is mainly laid to lawn and surrounded by shrub borders, a fruit tree, and an original stone wall boundary. Additionally, there is a brick-built outbuilding offering excellent storage.
