Dorchester DT1

High East Street, Dorchester DT1

Meyers Estates are thrilled to offer this generously proportioned maisonette to the market. The property briefly comprises on the first floor a bright eat in kitchen living space, a principal double bedroom and family bathroom with shower over bath. As you alight to the second floor you are greeted by a further two bedrooms and a separate recreation space which could be used as a further living space or home office. The property lends itself to rental investors with projected ROI's available upon request and first time buyers. The apartment further benefits from being in a central Dorchester location and having easy access to the hospital and the station.
