Description

A truly distinctive character home situated on a sought after road within NR6.

This 1940's built detached home has a wonderful mature garden and early viewings are essential to appreciate the space and tranquillity this lovely home offers.

As you enter the property there is a generous entrance hallway with a characterful turned staircase and doors which lead to all the principal ground floor rooms. The sitting room is a good size and benefits from a lovely dual aspect with a window to the front and bay window to the rear aspect which looks over the rear garden. There is a separate dining room which is currently used as a home office and could also be used as another sitting room if required. The kitchen is a good size and is fitted with a range of wall and base units and there is ample space for appliances. From the kitchen there is also a separate utility room, pantry, storage cupboard and downstairs WC. There is also a further door which leads to the side aspect which gives access to the gardens and single garage.

To the first floor there is a large landing with airing cupboard and doors which lead to all bedrooms and the family bathroom. All bedrooms are well proportioned and the family bathroom features a three piece white suite which comprises a panel bath, low level WC and a hand wash basin.

Agents Notes:

There is a management residents company with monthly cost of £37.50 pcm

Outside

Outside to the front aspect there is a lawn garden with pathway to the front and side aspect. There is also a driveway which provides ample off road parking and serves as access to the single garage with up and over door. To the rear aspect there is a beautiful garden which is adorned with mature trees and flower and established flower and shrub borders.

All enclosed by timber fencing, this stunning garden offers a great degree of privacy and needs to be seen.
