Description

Built in 1904, this charming Edwardian residence offers a spacious three-bedroom layout, showcasing numerous appealing features, a generously sized garage, and a peaceful courtyard garden.

Designed with versatility in mind, the property boasts a semi open-plan arrangement. The ground floor comprises a cosy-living room with brand new log burner, a dining room with French doors leading outside, a breakfast kitchen, and a separate downstairs toilet and cloakroom. Moving upstairs, you'll find a master bedroom with an en-suite shower room, two additional double bedrooms, and a spacious house bathroom, all surrounding a well-proportioned landing area.

Situated along Low Moorgate, Mulberry Cottage overlooks the village beck and St Andrew's Church. The property includes a sizable integral garage with a remote-operated door for convenient parking. At the rear, a stunning courtyard garden awaits, predominantly paved, featuring a covered seating area on one side and steps leading to an elevated sitting space with built-in benches and artificial turf.

Nestled in Rillington, a well-appointed village just four miles east of Malton, this residence benefits from a range of amenities, including a popular primary school, a shop, post office, two public houses, a butcher's shop, and a doctor's surgery. For additional services and secondary schooling, the nearby towns of Malton and Norton are easily accessible. The strategic location of the A64 ensures excellent connections to surrounding areas such as Scarborough, York, and Leeds.
