Beta Place, SW4

An extremely unique and architecturally impressive, split-level apartment extending to 1,364 sq.ft over two floors within the desirable Alpha House development - a converted Victorian Schoolhouse set within gated, landscaped grounds with private access, allocated off-street parking and a resident's gym.

The accommodation has been refurbished to an extremely high and exacting standard throughout and is configured around an expansive double-height reception room, comprising comfortable seating areas, and ample room to entertain and dine. A modern kitchen adjoins the reception room and includes a wide range of attractive wall and base units along with integrated appliances.

Over the second floor are two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, including the principal suite, which boasts a dressing room with fitted wardrobes and an en suite bathroom.

Beta Place is just a short walk of both Brixton and Clapham for superb transport links on the Northern and Victoria Lines as well as the many shops, bars and restaurants.
