

Fernside Road, SW12

£650,000

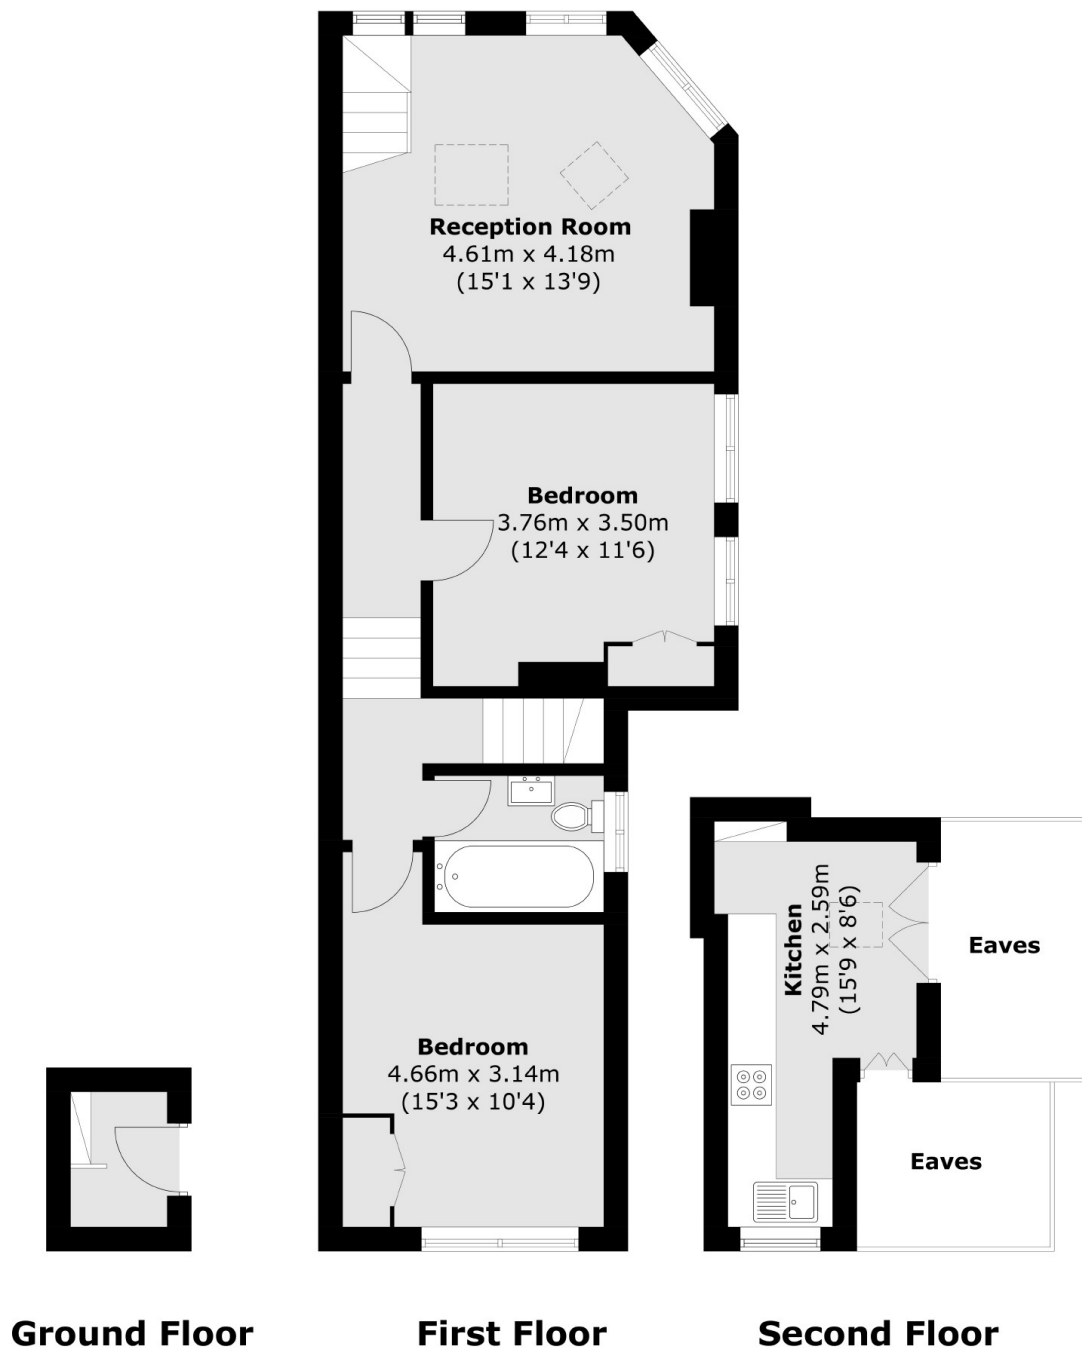

A unique and architecturally impressive maisonette situated at the end of a handsome terrace within the Nightingale Triangle. Accessed via a private entrance, the accommodation is superbly presented following a recent renovation and has been thoughtfully arranged to include an inspiring, dual-aspect reception room with a double-height, vaulted ceiling, overlooked by a well equipped, mezzanine kitchen; two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a contemporary family bathroom. Offered to the market with a share of freehold and no onward chain.

Fernside Road is an attractive residential street conveniently located within walking distance of the amenities on Bellevue Road and Balham High Road. The wide-open spaces of Wandsworth Common are also nearby, offering green space for recreation and relaxation. Excellent transport links are available at Wandsworth Common Station, providing fast and convenient access to central London via Clapham Junction and Victoria. Additionally, Balham Underground Station is within easy reach, offering direct access to the City via the Northern Line (Bank branch).
