'Old Stabling' is a beautifully appointed detached period home that occupies a commanding position in one of the oldest and most picturesque parts of the village. As well as three principal bedrooms in the main house the property also has the superb benefit of an attached studio/annexe, ideal for housing a dependent relative, or perhaps gaining an income from Air B&B, or to simply be utilised as additional accommodation to the main house. The property is blessed with a fantastic landscaped, tiered garden, including several discrete sitting areas and a superbly positioned sun terrace, from which the panoramic views are simply breath taking.

Approached along Street end lane, 'Old Stabling' blends period character with modern day refinements to create what is a versatile family home with real Wow factor. The property features attractive painted, and exposed stone, elevations with a handsome clay tiled roof as well as double glazed farmhouse styled windows.

To the side and the rear of the house are two generous areas of off street parking with plenty of room for 4-5 cars, or even a motorhome or boat. To the front of the house is a smart stone paved courtyard that leads to a stylish front door leading into a tiled entrance hallway with stairs rising to the first floor, and doors leading to the main house and annexe.

The main accommodation of the house features two superb reception rooms including a light filled dual aspect sitting room with a homely cast iron woodburning stove. From the sitting room double doors lead you through to a lovely dining room perfect for more formal dining occasions with friends and family, with french doors leading to the patio area. The kitchen/breakfast room is another impressive room, and as with all good houses is very much the social hub of the home, the rooms interesting shape adds great character and its bespoke hand built units with oak worktops add great personality. The kitchen features a superb AGA with an additional gas hob, a double electric oven and plumbing for a dishwasher. There is also a delightful handcrafted seating area with space for a breakfast table, dual aspect windows and quarry tiled floor.

Beyond the kitchen is a handy boot room/utility area with a door to the lane and access to an incredible useful shower and cloak room.

Moving onto the first floor you will find three good sized double bedrooms along with the family bathroom, the principal bedroom is set to the end of the corridor and enjoys a fantastic outlook from the dual facing windows out over the village towards Blagdon Lake and beyond, there is also access to a good sized eaves storage area which is currently utilised as a walk in wardrobe. The vaulted ceiling and timber beams add further charm. The remaining two bedrooms are both great sized rooms and both have fitted cupboards and delightful outlooks. There is also open access to a useful study area in the middle bedroom. Completing the first floor accommodation is the family bathroom which is fitted with a white three piece suite with dual aspect windows and built in vanity cupboards.

Annexe: Accessed either via the main house entrance or from a private door to the rear of the house the annexe is a far more contemporary affair, recently completed this superb addition to the main house offer a self contained area that could be utilised as a source of additional income or indeed provide an independent space for an older relative or teenager. The principal studio room has plenty of space for a double bed and soft seating area with a lovely vaulted ceiling, dual aspect windows, including French doors to a private sunken courtyard and Velux windows. There is a small well appointed kitchenette and a chic walk in shower room. The room is enhanced by exposed brickwork and timber beams, along with a delightful stone tiled floor.

Outside: The garden at Old Stabling is every bit as impressive as the house itself and it is evident that a great deal of time, attention and know how has gone into creating a gorgeous garden for all seasons. The garden blends discrete al-fresco dining areas with abundant flower filled borders, along with productive vegetable and fruit beds, and generous areas of lawn. A neat stone chipped driveway separates the house from the main garden, there is a brick shed, greenhouse, boiler room and a meandering footpath that leads you through the different levels of the garden. Right to the top of the garden there is a stunning stone patio area which provides you with the best vantage point in the garden to take in the incredible panoramic views over the Valley and Blagdon Lake.

Our vendor says... "We moved from Bristol to Old Stabling with our two children nearly 30 years ago. The lane is quiet and we have really good neighbours. As a family we have loved living here, enjoying and benefitting from the many facilities and social events in the village and surrounding area."

Situation: The village of Blagdon in North Somerset is located on the slopes of the Mendip Hills overlooking Blagdon Lake, which is famous for its trout fishing. The whole area is one of outstanding natural beauty and there are splendid views of the surrounding hills and open countryside.
